Free Ask-a-Lawyer Call-in Program
9 a.m.–noon, April 29

Albuquerque, N.M. — New Mexico residents can get their legal questions answered or receive a referral by phone during the free Ask-a-Lawyer Call-in Program at 9 a.m.–noon, Saturday, April 29.

Lawyers will staff the phones across New Mexico and answer questions on a wide variety of topics including employment law, divorce, child support, landlord/tenant issues, personal injury, estate planning, real estate, criminal issues and more.

The public can call the following numbers to be connected to the Ask-a-Lawyer Call-in between 9 a.m. – 12 p.m. (noon) on April 29 only. All callers remain anonymous. Callers should have documents relating to their case/question ready prior to calling in.
